AMICABLE ADJUSTMENT OF CHARLESTON CONTROVERSY IS LOOKED FOR.

F. J. Pons and His Associates Said to Be Agreeable to Idea of Racing Under Auspices of the Jockey Club—Moderate Weather Now Prevails.

Charleston, S. C., January 16.—While there is general regret that a second postponement of the inaugural meeting of the Charleston Fair and Racing Association was necessary, the horsemen take an optimistic view of the situation and opine that it will rebound to the good of racing in general. They take the view that the additional week intervening before the opening of the meeting will afford opportunity to establish friendly relations with the Jockey Club. The governors of the sport at New York are not expected to be unreasonable in regard to the concessions asked for by the local association, especially when it is lucidly set forth that the rigid enforcement of some of the eastern rules would not serve any advantage to racing at this particular time and only serve to hamper the success of the meeting here. That the controversy between the Jockey Club and the local association will be smoothed over is generally regarded as certain. General Manager Pons and his associates welcome the idea of racing under the Jockey Club's supervision and will conform to any reasonable demand of the eastern turf body. Should the mission of Messrs. Marshall and Hughes to New York be unsuccessful, the original plans for the racing here will be carried out and the full seventy-five days of racing will be given. The two weeks' postponement, made necessary by the inclement weather, will bring the closing date to April 19, instead of April 5, as originally scheduled. A revision of the dates for the stakes is also made.

Quite a number of racing men will go to Columbia tomorrow to attend the hearing on the anti-betting bills before the Judiciary Committee of the lower branch of the Legislature. The opinion is still general that no action affecting the sport will be taken during the present term of the Legislature. The moderate weather prevailing today enabled the workmen to accomplish much towards the completion of the course. Most of the day was devoted to the repairing of defects disclosed by the recent severe weather.

W. F. Schulte lost a filly by Batts—Maydine this morning, from fever. This youngster had shown the fastest trial of any of the two-year-olds in the stable and was highly thought of by her owner and trainer. Names for two-year-olds that will race here still continue to come in. Some of the latest are F. D. Weir's Miss Edith, b. f., by Bowling Brook—Servilia, and Sprightly Miss, b. f., by Eldrim—Lochnaber; Mrs. T. Hackett's Calma, b. c., by Cesarion—Alma Dufour; W. J. Toombs' Ormonde Spice, br. f., by Ormonde—Rit of Spice, and Ella Grane, br. f., by Filigrane—Rit of Spice; E. J. Yonkers' Yonkers, ch. f., by Nasturtium—Highland Princess, and Morris Freidson, b. c., by Star Shoot—Estelle Whitney.

Hugh Penny is still at Columbia with W. P. Austin's horses, taking advantage of the good track there for training purposes. He will delay the transfer of his string here until a couple of days before the opening at Palmetto Park and the horses under his care should cut an important figure during the early days of the meeting.

The trains from the north brought numerous racegoers this afternoon. They left the city in the afternoon, and the postmen were made public and were much disappointed when they learned that the racing would not open until Wednesday next. Among the prominent ones were Jack Sturgis, who came from Baltimore; William Beverley, Charlie Quinn and George Reiff, from New York, and Captain Duhaime and Edward Shevlin of the Plinkerton service.

Jockeys Kennedy and Loftis were also arrivals. Kennedy, who will do the riding for J. R. Wainwright's stable, has been on a hunting trip in Texas. Canadian advices reached here today to the effect that work on the Hamilton grandstand is almost completed and that the Ottawa track will be finished in time for a meeting the coming season. The remodeling of the Windsor plant is also progressing satisfactorily, and that course promises to be, in the matter of appointments, the ranking course in the Dominion.

W. May has perhaps the most pretentious establishment at Palmetto Park, and all of his horses are looking exceedingly well. He has some nicely turned two-year-olds, including the chestnut son of Ort Wells and Katie Havin; a black colt, by Fatherless—Sister Anna; chestnut colt, by Ort Wells—Lillian; chestnut colt, by Cesarion—Sneerwell; black filly, by Fatherless—Tillie, and bay filly Madeline B. by the Elector—Enameline. They are ready. Mr. May also has Mrs. Wiggs, Jack Ellis, Tillie's Nightmare and Tommie Thompson.

One hundred and thirty-three owners have made nominations for the twenty stake events of the Charleston Fair and Racing Association, ranging all the way from one entry to eighty-six, which is the largest number made. Catesby Woodford has the distinction of having made the most entries, he having averaged a trifle over four nominations to each stake. Second on the list comes the Tennessee Stable, which has sixty-four nominations in the twenty stakes, while third place goes to L. P. Doerhoefer with 58. H. G. Bedwell is close up with 56 nominations. R. F. Carman, who will have the largest stable of horses at the track, is not as well represented in these rich events as one would suppose he would be, as his list only totals 41 and he has not made any entries to the two-year-old stakes. The number of nominations made by each owner follows:

Catesby Woodford, 56; Tennessee Stable, 64; L. P. Doerhoefer, 58; H. G. Bedwell, 56; R. F. Carman, 41; J. L. Holland, 29; B. Schreiber, 26; J. C. Milam, 25; J. R. Wainwright, 25; P. M. Walker, 23; J. 1911 SHOWING OF A VIRGINIA STABLE

In comparison with 1910, William Garth enjoyed a greatly enlarged measure of success on the turf in 1911. In 1910 his horses won eight races and $4,205, whereas his 1911 record was thirty-two races and $16,325 won. His best contributor was the something more than useful selling plater, Busy, quite a good horse when right on edge and a well-bred one. Montgomery, a star four years ago, but now due for retirement to the stud, contrived to win a few races, and others that brought grist to the Garth racing mill to the extent of a thousand dollars or more each were Maronara, Ringmaster, Rod and Gun, Muskumelon and Surflet. The record of the stable for the year is as follows:

Horse	Age	Color, Sex and Pedigree	1st.	2d.	3d.	Won.
Busy	4	Bay colt, by Galore—Busy Maid	7	5	5	$ 4,620

J. W. Davis has selected the name of Insurance Man for the bay gelding, by Hermis—Melton Mowbray.

The two-year-olds that will race in the name of N. B. Davis & Co. are: Nash Cash, ch. c., by Nasturtium—Scattercash, H. H. Gray, br. c., by Nasturtium—Annul, Rostertium, br. c., by Nasturtium—Pink Rose.

William Lakeland has sent a maiden three-year-old from Brighton Beach to participate in the racing here.

Capt. P. M. Walker, a retired officer of the United States Army, who was forced to leave the service on account of ill health and took to racing for recreation as well as the benefits he would derive from participating in outdoor sport, has a fine lot of horses here. His stable numbers fourteen, and two of them, Pulka and Pocotaligo, are the property of C. J. Odell of Savannah, Ga. There are no two-year-olds in Captain Walker's string. Jockey Byrne, a promising lightweight, is under contract to Captain Walker.

Green E. Morris is training Robert Bruce, Prosper and Jenny Geddes here.

George Ham has Donau, Sureget and Working Lad ready to race.

AMERICAN RIDERS SUCCESSFUL ABROAD.

O'Neill, Reiff, Maher, Martin, Dugan, O'Connor, Archibald and Others Have Lucrative Contracts.

New York, January 16.—This season there will be on the race tracks of England, France, Germany, Austria and Russia the following American jockeys: Danny Maher, J. H. (Skeets) Martin, Frank O'Neill, Johnny Reiff, Winnie O'Connor, G. Archibald, J. Sumter, D. Winkfield, Guy Garner, Eddie Dugan, Milton Henry, Nash Turner and Willie Shaw. The average sum that each jockey will receive will be $12,000 or an aggregate of $156,000.

Frank O'Neill was the most successful jockey in France last season. He rode for William K. Vanderbilt and won 153 races out of a total of 495 mounts. He won the most valuable race in France, the Grand Prix de Paris, worth about $38,000, on Marquis de Ganey's black colt As d'Atout, and wound up his notable achievements by capturing the Doncaster St. Leger in England on T. Pilkington's Prince Palatine.

Although in the matter of winning O'Neill was at the top of the list of jockeys in France, his success in the percentage line was not equal to that of Johnny Reiff, who won one race out of every four. O'Neill will again wear the white and black colors of Mr. Vanderbilt this season. Reiff's showing last season was brilliant. He won 115 races out of a total of 468 mounts. He was largely responsible for the success of Frank J. Gould's horses. The Gould stable won more than $100,000 last year. Reiff has been winning in France for many years and is one of the most popular American jockeys abroad. In 1901 Reiff won the Epsom Derby on Richard Croker's Orby. While in America he rode for John J. McCafferty and Enoch Wishard. The latter was his tutor in the art of riding. At that time Johnny was among the lightweight brigade of jockeys and could easily make ninety pounds. At all times he has managed to win sufficient races to keep him among the leading riders of America and France.

Milton Henry went to Europe when Tod Sloan made his invasion of the English turf and popularized the American style of riding. Henry is called the dean of American jockeys in France. He is now heavy and only receives occasional mounts. But at that he won twenty-three races last year. The Nash Turner does not ride often. He has his own stable and spends the greater part of his time in training his horses. Last year he was exceptionally successful and is now considered one of the wealthiest owners among the professional horsemen of France.

Winnie O'Connor divides his time between riding horses on the flat and over the jumps. He has become an expert steeplechase rider. Recently he was hurt while riding in a steeplechase, but is again in good condition. Winkfield, a negro rider who won many races for Edward Corrihan and Pat Dunne in the west, is one of the popular riders on the German turf. Archibald who is now riding in India, is under contract to Baron Oppenheim this season. Eddie Dugan will ride in Austria. Dugan will earn at least $20,000 during the season. He is under contract to Baron de Rothschild. Guy Garner, under contract to August Belmont, rode in France last season and won so many races for M. Stern, a rich patron of the French turf, that he will remain in that country and ride for Mr.

Stern—if he has his way. But Mr. Belmont claims he has a verbal agreement with Garner's mother on his services and will enforce his contract on the lad's services.

ORBY TWO-YEAR-OLDS READY TO RACE.

Since the glorious days of Orby and Rhodora, the ex-Tammany boss, Richard Croker, has done but little racing in England, although taking an active part in Irish racing. But it is quite probable that he will cross the channel with a good stable this year. The first of Orby's progeny are now two-year-olds and Croker is hopeful they will distinguish themselves in competition with the best English breeding may produce. Besides his two-year-olds he possesses in Simon Lass, Glorious, Amsterdam and Farrier a band of three-year-olds of more than average quality and altogether seems to be well equipped for a campaign in England. The components of his stable of 1912 are the following:

Altona, b. c. 4, by Clonmel—Blackstone. Clonmel, ch. c. 4, by Clonmel—Rhoda B. Amsterdam, b. f. 3, by Americus—Sabbine Queen. Cross Cut, ch. f. 3, by Solomon—Cross Fire. Farrier, br. c. 3, by Parman—St. Ilma. Glorious, b. f. 3, by Americus—Vain Glory. Magna, ch. f. 3, by Americus—Maggie B. Simon Lass, br. f. 3, by Simontant—Kilkenny Lass.

Toward, ch. c. 2, by The Gull—Rose O'Neill. Brown colt, 2, by Dinneford—St. Ita. Etna, b. f. 2, by Earla Mor—Pennywise. Howard O'Farrell, ch. c. 2, by Orby—Grand Gerle-line.

Josh, g. c. 2, by Grey Leg—Catherine. Night's Key, b. c. 2, by The White Knight—Shela. Orby, br. c. 2, by Orby—Irena. Orinda, ch. c. 2, by Orby—Sabbine Queen. Orby, br. f. 3, by Orby—Blackstone. Orby, ch. f. 2, by Orby—Cross Fire. Jockeys: Peter Hughes, M. Giff, and C. Pender-gast.

JOCKEY CLUB'S CHARLESTON POSITION.

New York, January 16.—It is pointed out that an altogether erroneous idea has prevailed among the horsemen concerning the action taken by the stewards of the Jockey Club in warning the Charleston Fair and Racing Association that its meeting will be outlawed unless the rules of the Jockey Club are complied with. The threat to outlaw has been called an eleventh hour rilling, that afforded the owners no chance to make other arrangements. The records show that the Charleston Association was informed by letter on August 17 last that a license and dates would have to be applied for to make the meeting a regular one.

In August, John Marshall, as secretary of the South Carolina Jockey Club, wrote the Jockey Club that his club desired to give a race meeting at Charleston during the winter, and they desired that good will of the Jockey Club, but would not ask the stewards to approve their racing dates.

When this letter was taken up at a meeting of the stewards, held Wednesday, August 16, Algernon Daingerfield, assistant secretary, was instructed to advise Mr. Marshall that the rules necessitated that they apply for the sanction of the stewards of the Jockey Club and that if they did so their communication would receive due consideration.

This letter was sent to Mr. Marshall the following day, August 17, and from that time no application was made for the sanction or the approval of the dates that were chosen by the Charleston Association. The later action of the Jockey Club stewards, taken at the annual meeting, held last Thursday, was merely a reminder that the rules had not been complied with, as pointed out in the August correspondence over the meeting.

P. J. DWYER'S ATTITUDE UNCHANGED.

New York, January 16.—In connection with the proposed Grand Circuit trotting meeting at Gravesend track in August next, it had been stated that Philip J. Dwyer, president of the Brooklyn Jockey Club and main stockholder of the property, had agreed to allow the use of the property for a harness meeting, but there is a strong proviso attached to it which will be hard to overcome.

Speaking of the matter, Mr. Dwyer said: "I have been asked to allow the use of our track for the Grand Circuit trotting meeting some time next August, and personally have no objection to the proposition except that while the directors' liability law remains in force on the statute books of the state, the stockholders of the Brooklyn Jockey Club will not permit racing of any sort on its course."

"If it is within the law to turn over the charter of our association to the gentlemen who are backing and will manage this trotting meeting for a period of a week or so we shall be glad to accommodate them, provided the matter is fully determined by our attorneys in the near future."

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

Thomas B., Chicago. An expression of opinion to the effect that Arasee should have finished first is of no account in face of the fact that he finished second. The bet lost.

Ronnie, Toronto, Ont. Do not know Mr. Haymaker's present address, but deem it probable that a letter addressed to him at Palmetto Park, Charleston, S. C., would reach him.

C. W. J., Pullman, Ill. The Columbia races of December 22 having been postponed with entries to stand, wagers made also stood postponed for decision the following day, unless declared off by mutual consent. The parlay that won should have been paid promptly.

CANADIAN DATES ALLOTTED

RACING SEASON OF 1912 IN DOMINION WILL OPEN AT TORONTO MAY 18.

Schedule Arranged Yesterday Provides for Fall Meeting at New Track at Ottawa, Which Late King Edward's Brother Will Assist in Dedicating

Toronto, Ont., January 16.—The Ottawa Jockey Club joined the Canadian circuit today, but as the course of the club is not yet ready for racing only conditional dates were granted, those being five days in the fall. The Canadian Racing Association's circuit dates for 1912 were decided on today as follows:

Ottawa Jockey Club, Toronto, May 18 to May 25. Montreal Jockey Club, Montreal, June 1 to June 8. Hamilton Jockey Club, Hamilton, June 15 to June 25. Niagara Racing Association, Fort Erie, June 29 to July 6. Windsor Fair Grounds and Racing Association, Windsor, July 13 to July 20. Niagara Racing Association, Fort Erie, July 27 to August 3. Hamilton Jockey Club, Hamilton, August 10 to August 17. Windsor Fair Grounds and Racing Association, Windsor, August 26 to September 25. Montreal Jockey Club, Montreal, September 7 to September 14. Ottawa Jockey Club, Ottawa, September 21 to September 28. Ontario Jockey Club, Toronto, September 28 to October 5.

The death of John Dymont, though he was the practical man of the Barrie racing establishment, does not mean the withdrawal of the green and orange jacket from the turf. Messrs. Simon and Albert Dymont mean to continue both the breeding and racing establishments and a first-class man will be engaged to direct the latter. The stallions Red Fox and Tongorder are at the head of the stud, and much is expected of the progeny of both horses. For this year's racing about a dozen two-year-olds of these sires will be available. Red Fox is the only son of Flying Fox in North America. For the King's Plate, the stable has two formidable candidates: Hensy, by Salm—Hera, and Tropaeolum, by Nasturtium—Lady Black. Both were brought to Ontario in utero and foaled at Barrie. They worked satisfactorily last fall. John Nixon, formerly with the Valley Farm Stable, will train the home-bred string of Robert Davies of Thorncliffe Farm. He has about a dozen two-year-olds, two King's Plates and several others. The remaining Thorncliffe horses, about fifteen two- and three-year-olds, are at Charleston in charge of C. T. Patterson.

Ottawa, Ont., January 16.—The newly-organized Ottawa Racing Association held a meeting last Saturday afternoon at which active officers were elected. Many of the most influential citizens of the capital are interested in the jockey club and arrangements are being made for the inaugural meeting which is to be held at the new course on the Arlmer road the coming season.

Hal B. McGilverin was elected president and the vice-presidents are Stewart McLennaghan, Fred Carling and Senator Belcourt. Charles Irvin is the honorary secretary and G. Hugheson the honorary treasurer. It was intended to elect Hon. Clifford Simon as president, but the latter, who is identified with the Ottawa horse show, the Ottawa Hunt Club and many other well-known local organizations, declined on account of the fact that he would not be able to devote the necessary time. The directors were appointed some time ago.

A letter was read from His Royal Highness, the Duke of Connaught, in which the governor-general consented to the naming of the new grounds Connaught Park. His royal highness said that it gave him great pleasure to do so and wished the new club every success. It is the intention of the club to elect his royal highness Honorary Patron and to invite him to open the magnificent new plant in June. The duke is a keen follower of the sport. Stewart McLennaghan, Hal McGilverin and Edward S. Skead represented the Ottawa club at today's meeting of the Canadian Racing Associations. They asked for dates towards the end of the season and will be placed on the Dominion circuit, which already includes Toronto, Fort Erie, Montreal, Hamilton and Windsor. Work upon the new plant is already under way, and so soon as the snow is off the ground 200 men will be put to work on the stands and stables. The club is already incorporated.

JUAREZ HAS ITS BIGGEST TUESDAY CROWD.

Injury Reduces Track Record for Seven-Eighths to 1:24 in Winning Feature Race.

El Paso, Tex., January 16.—Today brought two features of special interest at the Juarez course, the first being that the attendance was the largest ever registered on Tuesday in the history of the track, and the second the reducing of the track record for seven furlongs to 1:24, by J. W. Fuller's Injury. The former mark was 1:24. The consistent Kootenay acted as pacemaker until well into the stretch, but tired badly in the final furlong, and Injury rushed to the front. His rider was taking him under restraint in the last fifty yards and it was evident that he could have established the record materially lower. Arasee, starting for the first time since his accident, finished fast, as did John Louis, which came from far back. Neither Sebago nor Leopold, the choices, were dangerous, both running somewhat below their recent good races.

The ranks of the layers were increased when Jack Atkin cut in, bringing the total number of books in line to eleven, including the field and combination outfits.

CHANGE IN PROMINENT CANADIAN STABLE.

Hamilton, Ont., January 16.—The name of the Valley Farm Stable will not appear in this year's racing lists, but that does not mean that the brown and yellow jacket will not be seen. On the contrary, there will be two establishments, instead of one, representing the turf interests of the family. The Valley Farm Stable has been carried on in that name jointly by Col. John S. Hendrie of this city, and his brother George M. Hendrie of Windsor. Each is now to race in his own name, and the colors will naturally go to Colonel Hendrie, who will give particular attention to the home-bred horses. They are now at the Valley Farm, and will be trained by Ed Whyte, who sent to the post Martinmas and the Plate winners Butter Scotch and Lyddite for the late Mr. Hendrie. He will take charge February 1. It is understood that George M. Hendrie's horses will be trained by John Walters, who formerly trained for his uncle, George Hendrie, of Detroit.

Winner—B. f. by Waterboy—Mono (trained by E. L. Fitzgerald).
Went to post at 2:15. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.
GOLDEN RUBY began slowly, but moved up into forward contention quickly and passing EARLENE in the stretch, took the lead, but just before the finish, ORLA SMILE had no mishaps and ran in improving form. CHESS finished fast. DACTYLIS showed speed, but tired. EARLENE set the pace to the stretch and quit badly.
Scratched—1061 Lady Stalwart, 104; 1056 Dottie B., 109; 1072 Roseworth, 102; 1066 Judith Page, 112; 94065 Ivalani, 109.
Overweights—Ala Marchmont, 2 pounds.

1079 SECOND RACE—1 Mile. (94103—1:37½—5—122.) Purse $300. 4-year-olds and upward.

Time, 24½, 48½, 1:15½, 1:41½. Track fast.
Winner—B. m. by Orlando—Vassari (trained by J. Lowe).
Went to post at 2:45. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. SONA followed LITTLE JANE closely to the stretch, then took the lead and made a game finish. MISPRISION closed a big gap into a fast going and gaining second. BEN UNCAS ran prominently throughout. WICKET ran well to the stretch and tired in the final drive. BLACK MATE was running past horses at the finish.
WHIDDEN will do better presently. LITTLE JANE set the pace to the stretch, but tired and quit all over.
Scratched—1043 Star Venus, 103; (1066) Pipe Vision, 103; 1042 Rampant, 103.
Overweights—Little Jane, 1 pound.

1080 THIRD RACE—5-1-2 Furlongs. (94978—1:05½—4—105.) Purse $300. 3-year-olds.

RACING MANUAL NOW READY.

The American Racing Manual for 1912 is now ready for distribution. It is unquestionably better book than any of its predecessors, having been enriched by the addition of new features, while at the same time all the old features are retained. This publication, which is annually in great demand among those interested in the turf, is an excellent and low-priced book of 440 pages, holding information obtainable in no other publication. It is simply a mine of records. Among its features are:

75 cents in leather covers.
- Single copies by mail must be sent as registered mail, with an extra charge of 10 cents for registration. Not responsible for books mailed without registration.
- With this eminently handy book in his pocket any admirer of racing can readily answer almost any query that may come up concerning facts of racing in the past. Its equal has never been printed and considering the topics it covers, it is an extremely low-priced book.

Time, 23½, 47½, 1:13½, 1:30. Track fast.
Winner—B. g. by Kismet, by Melton—Juanita (trained by D. S. Fountain).
Went to post at 4:45. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second and third driving. HAN-NIS ran a good, game race and outstayed L. M. ECKERT for second place. The latter closed a gap and finished resolutely. FLYING FEET tired fast in the final furlong after setting the pace to the stretch.
FIGENT was making up ground at the end. LOTTA CREED tired badly from closely following FLYING FEET in nearest pursuit to the stretch.
Overweights—L. M. Eckert, 3 pounds; Flying Feet, 2; Figent, 1.

Juarez Entries and Past Performances for Wednesday, January 17.

WEATHER CLOUDY. TRACK FAST.

The figures under the heading "Rec." in the

I INCLUDE FREE

every reader of this paper who wants to back on SATURDAY, JAN. 20, a REAL LIVE STABLE SECRET. Without exception, this horse on Saturday will be about the BEST THING this season.
These people who have devoted over two months preparing this SLEEPER, are now ready to make the FINAL CLEAN UP, with every center covered with their money. Not one dollar will appear at the track from these people—in that way they will force the price up and themselves take closing newspaper odds for every dollar invested. It's a chance for the small and large better to become acquainted with REAL LIVE STUFF—from the shrewdest clique in the east. It will give you a chance to realize what a REAL LIVE SLEEPER means with a limited bet. I will let you in on the best thing of the year, if you promise to treat me honestly by sending me after the race $10, if Saturday's horse WINS AT 5 TO 1. If under 5 TO 1 you owe me nothing. Send correct name and address. No postal cards. IF I HAVE YOUR NAME DO NOT WRITE AGAIN.
You will hear from me. Address,
